What is it all about?

The Davos Natural Sciences Association (NGD) is looking for the 2nd Davos Science champion through a fun contest with a series of questions and tasks.

Who can participate?

Everyone working and living in Davos, especially science athletes in the research and health institutes in Davos and members of NGD.

Do I need to bring anything with me?

Yes, please bring your smartphone and ideally you install the app "Kahoot" on it before the contest. You will not have to download the app as you can also use your web browser.

Will the event be in German or English?

The official language of the Davos Science Olympics is English.

Is there anything to drink?

Yes, we will have free Monsteiner Bier and mineral water.

Is there a fee to participate?

There is no fee to participate. Everyone is invited by the NGD. Participants may want to join the NGD thereafter (premium membership available starting at 20 CHF per year)

Where will it be?

PMOD was chosen again as host Institute for this year`s Olympic games.

Will there be prizes?

As usual for scientists, it is about the glory not the money.... There will be a pokal and some fantastic prizes for the podium.

Do I need to register?

There is no need to register – just be there on Friday at 5 pm a the PMOD.
